Del. Supr., 508 A.2d 468 (1986)

Disciplinary Issues: Instructions to suspended lawyer

Nature of Case:

Petitioner, who had been suspended from the practice of law for two years, filed a request seeking instructions as to what activities he may perform during his suspension.

Action Taken by the Court:

The Court held that Petitioner "may perform tasks usually performed by law clerks and by paralegals, ... except that he may not have direct contact as a law clerk or paralegal with clients, witnesses or prospective witnesses." Id., at 469.
